Hi, Camille -

Bonnie shared your excellent Christmas letter. I had met you when you came down for the party Bonnie hosted for the 50th Wedding Anniversary of our mutual friends from the 'old' Los Alamos/White Rock days, Gary and Susan Simonsic.

Bonnie and I both enjoyed reading your Christmas missive and some of your letters, both published and unpublished. I'm working away on my own book now, to be titled Blackledge Stories. Bonnie and I got together about a year after my wife Helen died here in Albuquerque. Then early last year my son Doug died, and this book will be my written memorial for Doug and his mother Helen - however, I want it to include memoirs, anecdotes, stories from friends and colleagues.

Camille, do you have some stories and memories from the days when George and Bonnie lived in White Rock? Bonnie has told me a few stories, and I will attempt to capture them, but you have a penchant and a talent for writing and I'm hoping you can make a contribution that I can include in the book.

Once the holiday dust settles a bit, I would most appreciate your insights, memories, and wisdom from the past - we were all doing so well back then, yes?

Sincerely,

Mike Blackledge
